

THE WAVE OF THE WEST

de
BUS. PHONE: 948-8819*260

24 HR. STUDIO: 941-2500

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
APRIL 20, 1981

RE: * "NO COMMERCIAL POTENTIAL-THE FRANK ZAPPA SPECIAL ON KFJC"

HOSTS: ALEX PANTAGES, BUDDY AWREETUS AND WINSTON Q., WITH SPECIAL GUEST, FREELANCE MUSIC JOURNALIST DAN FORTE, FORMALLY EDITOR OF MUSIC INDUSTRY MAGAZINE

AIR DATE: FRIDAY, MAY 1 (10P.M.-3A.M.)
SATURDAY, MAY 2, (10P.M.-3A.M.)

OVERVIEW: With the approval of Frank Zappa's management (Glotzer Management), KFJC is proud to present an indepth profile revealing Frank Zappa-the man, the composer, and the social commentator.

Over three months in the making, the program will take a personal and professional look at one of the most innovative, poignant, experimental, and misunderstood songwriter/composers in music today.

From The Mothers of Invention, with their personnel changes and films, through to his soon to be released LP's "TINSEL TOWN REBELLION" and "SHUT UP AND PLAY YOUR GUITAR", we will present a basically chronological sketch of his career.

The first night will include an introduction of personnel along with a short biographical sketch of Zappa's life and music up to 1970. The second night will show his progression and diversity from the "Overnight Sensation" album to the present, which will include the world premiere of his two most recent LP's previously mentioned.

With the consent of Dan Forte, who will be in the studio on both nights, we will feature previously un-aired excerpts from a 1979 interview with Zappa done on behalf of Music Industry Magazine.

Each show will begin and end with a short collage of music and lyrics from throughout Zappa's career.

This special will attempt to disprove every myth about Frank Zappa that you may have previously come to believe.

* This title has no correlation with the book of the same name.

FOOTHILL COLLEGE 12345 EL MONTE ROAD LOS ALTOS HILLS CA. 94022